

"The Norwood Teachers Association and the Norwood School Committee are happy to report that we have addressed concerns raised by the NTA regarding the change in school start times through a collaborative impact bargaining process. The NTA acknowledges the School Committee's decision to change school start times in an attempt to optimize student learning. The School Committee based their decision on research pertaining to student development and learning."